Fifth Third Bank (“Fifth Third”) has determined that you may be included in the settlement of a lawsuit. The lawsuit alleges that Fifth Third improperly assessed overdraft fees for insufficient funds on debit card purchases and/or ATM withdrawals by “re-sequencing” transactions in order to maximize the number of overdraft fees. Fifth Third denies all of the claims. Those included have legal rights and options, such as submitting a claim for benefits or excluding themselves from or objecting to the settlement.

WHO IS INCLUDED?

The Settlement Class includes all persons in the United States who hold or held a Fifth Third Account and who at any time from October 21, 2004 through July 1, 2010, incurred at least one Overdraft Fee associated with at least one Fifth Third Debit Card Transaction.

SETTLEMENT BENEFITS.

Fifth Third will pay $9.5 million to a Settlement

Fund. Payments to Settlement Class Members will be up to three times the Overdraft Fees they paid during a continuous 45 day period. To get a payment you must submit a claim. You can submit your claim online at www.OverdraftSettlement.com or by mail. The claim deadline is May 2, 2011.

OTHER OPTIONS.

If you do not want to be legally bound by the settlement, you must exclude yourself by February 23, 2011. If you stay in the settlement, you may object to it by February 23, 2011. The Court will hold a hearing on March 16, 2011, to consider whether to approve the settlement and a request by Settlement Class Counsel for attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses of up to $3.167 million.
